- (b) you have materially breached any provision of this Agreement; or
- (c) in their reasonable opinion, in consultation with your National Federation, you are suffering from any physical or psychological injury, illness, condition, impairment or significant loss of level of performance that will prevent you from preparing for, or competing in, the Games to the highest possible standard; or

(d) you have been charged with a criminal offence punishable by imprisonment,

(which are referred to as a “default”), the NZOC or Chef de Mission may impose one or more of the sanctions listed in clause 13.4.

13.2 Where the NZOC or Chef de Mission has reason to believe that a default has or may have occurred, the NZOC or Chef de Mission shall, as soon as reasonably practicable:

- (a) undertake or cause to be made such enquiries as are considered appropriate, having regard to the nature of the alleged default; and
- (b) inform you of the particulars of the alleged default, relevant information obtained regarding the alleged default, and the sanctions that may be imposed if it is determined that a default has occurred; and
- (c) inform the chief executive officer (or his/her authorised representative) of your National Federation of the particulars of the alleged default, any information obtained regarding the alleged default, and the sanctions that may be imposed if it is determined that a default has occurred; and
- (d) give you the opportunity within a reasonable timeframe (which shall be no longer than 24 hours if it occurs during the Games, and 48 hours if it occurs at any other time during the Term of this Agreement) to provide your response to the particulars of the alleged default and any information disclosed to you; and
- (e) determine whether a default has occurred and inform you and the chief executive officer (or his/her authorised representative) of your National Federation and/or the NZOC (whichever is relevant) in writing of such determination, as soon as practicable.

13.3 Where the NZOC or Chef de Mission is investigating whether a default has occurred and where on the immediate evidence available, there is, in their reasonable opinion, a strong prima facie case of a default which is on its face sufficiently serious that it could lead to one or more of the sanctions specified in clause 13.4, the NZOC and/or Chef de Mission may suspend you while it/they complete an investigation and reaches a determination. During the period of suspension, the parties shall remain bound by this Agreement and you shall remain a member of the Team excepting that you shall be unable to participate in the Games or otherwise represent the Team in any capacity until the suspension is ended and/or a determination is made. The NZOC acknowledges that suspension is a serious step that could have significant impact on your career and as such, it will take into account all relevant considerations, including the impact on you when determining the appropriateness of suspension. The NZOC will also use all reasonable endeavours to complete any investigation promptly.

13.4 Where it is determined that a default has occurred, the NZOC or Chef de Mission may take one or more of the following steps:

- (a) provide counselling and/or education to you to ensure the default is not repeated;
- (b) formally warn you that a repetition of the default (or other unacceptable behaviour) will result in a more severe sanction under this clause;
- (c) if the default occurs prior to you validating your accreditation at the Games, withdraw your selection to the Team;
- (d) terminate this Agreement by giving you written notice to that effect;
- (e) either suspend your membership of the Team temporarily or terminate your membership of the Team permanently;

- (f) require you to leave the Games venues (which may include the Games Village);
- (g) exclude you from competition at the Games;
- (h) cancel and impound your Games accreditation card to prevent you from accessing the Games venues, including the Games Village;
- (i) require you to return to your usual place of residence as soon as practicable, at the expense of the NZOC;
- (j) require you to pay, by way of compensation or reparation, the costs for any damage to property or persons caused by you;
- (k) where the NZOC considers it appropriate, upon presentation of information from the Chef de Mission and following due process (including the right for you to have support/representation present), it may prevent you from being eligible for consideration for selection for these Games or for future NZOC selected teams to Olympic Winter Games and/or other games;
- (l) where the NZOC considers it appropriate to do so, and in accordance with the NZOC Nomination and Selection Regulation, refer the matter giving rise to the default to your National Federation to be dealt with in accordance with applicable rules of the National Federation; and/or
- (m) impose such other sanctions on you as are considered fair and reasonable in the circumstances.

14. APPEALS

- 14.1 You may appeal against a determination of the NZOC or Chef de Mission made under clause 13.1 or a sanction imposed upon you under clause 13.4 to the NZOC Appeals Committee in accordance with the procedure set out in Schedule A of this Agreement.

The NZOC (which for the purposes of this clause includes its members, officers, staff, Team Support, coaches and members of the Team) will not itself be liable to you for any loss, damage or injury of any kind to you or your property arising from, or in connection with, any act or omission of any person (including the NZOC) unless it arises as a direct result of a deliberate and wrongful act or omission by the NZOC; and
