B) New Zealand Olympic Committee Commercial Waiver Form – For Athletes – Content of Form:

Why a Commercial Waiver?

A Commercial Waiver will help manage the sponsorship and identity around athletes during the Olympic and Commonwealth Games, protecting a clean field of play and honouring the rights of the games hosts, organisers and sponsors.

It will also help ensure long-standing personal athlete sponsors can continue to support their athlete during the short games period.

The Commercial Waiver may be granted by the New Zealand Olympic Committee for any generic advertising featuring an athlete identity during the Olympic and Commonwealth Games and the few days around it (known as the 'Protected Period').

Athletes should complete a Commercial Waiver application for each potential advertising campaign or promotional activity that may run during the Protected Period.

More information about the Commercial Waiver and conditions of use can be found at http://www.olympic.org.nz/about-the-nzoc/governance-documents/#Regulations_and_Guidelines
